

MARTIN INVESTIGATIVE SERVICES

A Professional Corporation

FORMER FEDERAL AGENTS
WITH THE FBI, DEA, IRS, AND SECRET SERVICE

You're known by the company you keep

I have known Tom Martin since 1984. I, as well as our company, have used Tom's services over 30 years, personal as well as business. We have never been disappointed! Tom does what he says and I believe he is the BEST there is.

*Kenneth Julian
Partner
Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP*

It has been my pleasure to work with Martin Investigative Services over the past 30 plus years on many investigations as well as other security-related matters. When I need answers and I need them fast, I know that a simple call will get me answers that are succinct, current, and coming from a supremely knowledgeable source.

*Bill Bancroft
President & CEO
Patrol One*

I have used Martin Investigative Services since returning to the practice of law. Their work is first rate! Their reports are reliable, and if called upon to testify, Martin's investigators are well prepared and extremely professional.

*Gary Ryan
Former Orange County
Superior Court Judge*

I am proud to state that I have exclusively used the professional services of Tom Martin and his firm for more than 20 years. Whenever the need arises for a private investigator, the only name that I consider for my clients is Tom. In my 40-year career as a family lawyer, I have recognized the importance of professional investigators. Unfortunately, many of the investigators that I have encountered have not satisfied the professional standard that I expect. I have utilized the firm in some very delicate and discreet investigations and situations requiring a strong security presence. In every engagement, both my clients and myself have been completely satisfied. I have no reservations in endorsing Tom and his firm for any investigative assignments.

*David E. Wald
Attorney and Firm Principal
Hughes & Hughes, LLP*

I have known Tom Martin and used his services for many years. I trust him with the most challenging investigative tasks.

Professional and efficient, he and his staff leave no stone unturned to get the job done.

*Wylie Aitken
Trial Lawyer
Former President of California's Trial Bar*

MARTIN INVESTIGATORS ARE THE BEST IN THE WORLD

During the past 40 years, Martin Investigative Services has become the recognized worldwide leader in providing investigative services.

We have helped thousands of clients with surveillance cases, finding people, bug sweeps, cheating spouse cases, asset searches, corporate investigation, unsolved crimes, litigation support, and much more.

Our private investigators are all former supervisory Federal agents. Their vast experience gives us an edge with our cases and sets us far apart from other investigation firms. It also gives our clients confidence and peace of mind by knowing that every aspect of their case has been thoroughly evaluated.

With his extensive investigation background and a Masters degree in Public Management, Mr. Martin is recognized as an expert detective in Federal, state, and local courts. He has worked with the Southern California legal community, where his services have been relied on for decades.

Mr. Martin has helped locate hundreds of missing persons and runaways, and has worked with executives at Fortune 500 and large private companies on matters of fraud and electronic eavesdropping detection sweeps.

Mr. Martin has been involved in numerous high-profile cases with national exposure. He has been featured in many of the nation's leading newspapers including The New York Times, Los Angeles Times, The Washington Post, and Orange County Register. He has also appeared numerous times on all three major television networks and cable channels including CNN.

Martin is the author of If You Only Knew..., a book that teaches consumers how to do their own entry-level investigation and how to avoid fraud and scams. The text of the book is available at:

SURVEILLANCE

When your intuition tells you something is wrong, you are usually correct. Perhaps you suspect an employee of workers' compensation fraud. Maybe you suspect a cheating spouse. You need proof, but more importantly, you need proof that will stand up in court. Our investigators are trained to perform discreet surveillance and provide court-admissible evidence of wrongdoing.

Actual audio and video "bugs" discovered by Martin Investigative Services.

BUG, CAMERA, AND ELECTRONIC EAVESDROPPING DETECTION SWEEPS

Are you afraid that your personal, family or professional life has been compromised? Do you think someone is secretly listening to you or watching you or your family? It can happen to anyone, especially individuals and their relatives involved in personal litigation and family law matters. Corporate America is also at risk from any competitor who would benefit from an unfair advantage.

Our electronic detection team can discover and disable any device that is jeopardizing your security, as well as identify the individual who planted the device.

ASSET SEARCH

We have the largest database of public information in the United States which allows us to identify assets and accounts across the globe when others cannot.

COURT-ADMISSIBLE EVIDENCE

Our experts provide court-admissible evidence that can make the difference in a trial.

WE CAN LOCATE ALMOST ANYONE, ANYWHERE, WORLDWIDE

"Locate cases" come in a variety of forms: missing persons, runaway children, adoption, old classmates, lost loves, missing relatives, paternity suits, deadbeat dads, inheritance, and process service. Most locate services, including the growing number on the internet, use one or two data sources. We access hundreds of databases across the world at one time. Our search service has the highest "find rate" in the industry. We're so confident that we offer a full, 100% money-back guarantee.
